

Subject: RMPS

Level: Higher

Course Contents and Components	Tips for Success	Study Approaches
Studying a world religion in detail Developing an understanding of contemporary moral issues and responses Studying key aspects of religious and philosophical questions Exploring questions raised and solutions offered by religious and non-religious perspectives Reflecting on these, and on their own experience and views Term 1: Buddhism Term 2: Buddhism Term 2: Religion & Justice Term 3: Religion & Justice Term 3: Assignment Term 4: Origins Revision	Review and revise topics at the end of each unit Update and review and revise your glossary of terms for each unit Be organised and bring all relevant materials to class Allocate 2 hours for homework and revision every week If you are unsure of any questions or part of the course please ask your teacher You will be supplied with sample exam type questions and extensive revision materials. Unfortunately due to the amendments to the Higher course this year there is no bank of relevant exam papers to use as examples. Please use the materials issued by your teacher as a method of revision to gain experience of exam type questions.	Essay Questions on a weekly basis. Revision of core beliefs and practices in all course areas Write down a summary or bullet point key facts. Traffic light end of topic sheets to identify areas for improvement Start revision NOW!!! Support from the Department Study Support: After October will be on a Thursday Lunch & Wednesday after school 3.40-4.30pm. These times are highly flexible and if they are unsuitable the pupil should see Miss McLaren to arrange an alternative time for study support. Student Learning Journals are issued to each pupil. These are filled in throughout the year and help to identify areas of strength and areas for development. Agreed targets are set and the pupil keeps a copy of this for their revision notes. This will be reviewed at revision times and assist in creating a study plan for the pupils. Regular causes for concerns are sent home to

Exam Length 3 hours in two papers Paper 1: World Religions & Morality & Justice (2 hours 15mins) Paper 2: Religious & Philosophical Studies (45 mins)	Key Dates Prelim: January Assignment Submission: March 2019 SQA Exam: Monday 27th May 2019	keep parents fully informed of any areas of concern with their child. These are discussed with the pupil prior to being issued after persistent reoffending e.g. failure to complete homework, lateness, effort. Extensive and specific revision materials are distributed at periodical times of the year and relevant to current areas of study to assist in progression within this subject area. Homework is set weekly, on a Monday to be handed in the following Monday. If pupils are unsure of what homework is set for the following week they should check with peers/teacher or on the board..
---	---	--